Apostle Deborah L. Anderson Ambassador and Speaker of the House The Kingdom This book is written to the emerging new wine skins that are carrying an apostolic and prophetic anointing to advance the Kingdom of God! It is also written in defense of men and women who are in the process of stepping into the Office as five-fold ministry gifts to bless not only the Church, but the nations. A powerful "unchained" and timely message, it is designed to break strongholds and SHIFT mindsets regarding church membership to extend beyond the four walls of religious, institutional, gender-based, and denominational boundaries -- all for the healing of nations. This is a 21st Century Guide for 21st Century Ministry that addresses the more critical and relevant issues facing our nation to reclaim the mission and purpose for which Christ established the New Testament Church. Apostle Deborah takes you on a journey through her valleys of the shadow of death to bring you the "Power of His Resurrection" that is available to everyone for reformation, recovery, and restoration to wholeness. A Trumpet Ambassador for the Kingdom, she is a very creative, compassionate, business savvy, and anointed inspirational speaker who presents the Word of God in a revelatory and engaging way. Deborah is A VOICE for the 21st Century whose time has come to be heard!

Volume 4 includes Apostolic Fathers & Mothers, Apostolic Leadership & Teams, and Apostolic Creativity & Innovation. Written by Seventy Apostles and Apostolic Leaders from around the world and across the Seven Mountains (Spheres) of Culture, Aligning With the Apostolic is a pioneering, groundbreaking study and practical application and demonstration of the role and function of modern apostles in both the marketplace and the ecclesiastical realm, as well as the apostolic movement sweeping the earth today. Aligning With the Apostolic provides an unprecedented overview of the scope, nature, depth and breadth of the calling, function, gift, and office of apostles, and their role and function in the broader society and Kingdom of God as well as the church. This historic, five-volume series is edited by Dr. Bruce Cook, with Forewords by Drs. Peter Wagner, Bill Hamon, Lance Wallnau, Paula Price, Gordon Bradshaw, John Muratori and other leading apostles such as Rich Marshall, Lynn Scarborough, Johnny Enlow, and the late Kent Humphreys. The anthology also includes endorsements from John Eckhardt, Elisabeth Cochrane, Dr. Chuck Pierce, Dr. Elizabeth Hairston, and numerous others. The Hannah Anointing depicts the life of an Old Testament woman whom God used to fulfill His purpose and plans for a nation. Hannah, an ordinary woman, persevered through her barren season, unaware that she was being carried into a posture of prayer, supplication, and travail to birth one of the greatest prophets and judges in history. God took Hannah's suffering and pain and used it for His glory! In this book, you will see how the ordinary became extraordinary! God used Hannah's son, Samuel, to change the destiny of Israel. You may be in your season of barrenness; however, know that everything will shift when you determine to move to a posture of prayer. Only there can you birth the promises of God. In this book you will discover that you can: Overcome your barren season, whatever it is, in due time? Trust God to work behind the scenes on a greater plan even when you can't see it? Know that the greatness inside of you will be visible to others? Walk always in the overflow of His promises

Birthing the Nation analyses two intertwined narratives that shaped eighteenth-century British life: the development of the modern British state, and the emergence of the man-midwife as the pre-eminent authority over sex and childbirth. By exploring peculiar episodes in the history of the reproductive body and the body politic, from stories of pregnant men to rumours that a midwife had foisted a 'suppositious' child on the nation as the Prince of Wales, this original and provocative work proposes how national, religious, ethnic, and gendered identities were experienced through and symbolized by birth and midwifery.

God has a unique plan and purpose for you to fulfill in the earth. God has designed a birth- ing time, a 'delivery date' for your purpose and destiny to be made a reality in the kingdom. Without purpose, people live by default, instead of by design. Don't take the treasure God placed within you to the grave, stand and fight for it! Your God-given dreams are not reli- gious options, but they are prophetic imperatives. When you unlock your own purpose and destiny, you can change a city, transform a nation, and reach the world.

John Paul II's landmark apostolic letter on the dignity and vocation of women, with insightful commentary by Genevieve Kineke.

Church planting is not just about gathering new communities of people who are already Christians. Planting churches flows naturally out of making disciples. In this concise guide, pastor J. D. Payne explains the process and stages of church planting, with biblical foundations and practical steps for planting teams both domestically and internationally.

LEADERS are being prepared for this next season of the spirit. These mature and loyal prophets will stand before leaders and announce with great power and strength that position changes are coming. It is time for true Apostles to come forth in power. As I began to type this sermon I heard a voice of ultimate authority echo from Heaven, "True Apostolic IS Coming." I received a prophetic word months ago saying, Apostle come forth. Little did I know what was going to be required of me? "We had better get a good understanding of apostolic ministry under us... for it will be on top of us before we know it. Samuel is a type of this apostolic leadership. The Lord did let none of his words fall to the ground nor did he beg his bread from the people.

Rediscovering the role God designed for the church in mission is a critical issue facing the missions movement today. That role is to glorify God by planting churches among every tongue, tribe, and nation. Planting churches amid unreached peoples is a complex process. It calls forth every ministry gift and the contribution of every believer. Imagine a businessman, a construction worker, a schoolteacher, and an engineer all working together to support the development of a local church amongst an unreached people group in another part of the world. Most Christians will not leave home and go elsewhere to minister. If they are to participate in God's global mission, they must be affirmed, developed and released right where they live, in the context of their local church. This book shows how churches can become centers of mission vision and implementation and so accomplish God's design for the local church.

If the foundation be destroyed, what will the righteous do? (Psalm 11: 3). Every institution, life, building, and organization has a foundation. The Bible says that a foolish man built his house on the sand, and when storm, flood and wind came against it, it fell and great was its fall. A wise man however, built his house on the rock and when the storm, the flood and the wind came against it, it did not fall because the foundation of the house was strongly founded upon the rock. The only sure foundation to any life, kingdom, throne, and institution, such as marriage, on which they will survive, is the foundation of the word of God. When temptations, challenges, and trials come, the house (marriage, government, and kingdom) stays strong, because it is founded upon the solid rock, which is the Lord Jesus Christ. Marriage is ordained and executed by God. It is his original idea and the most important institution in the world. It started from the beginning of creation and will continue until the end of creation when the Lord Jesus will remove his Bride, the Church, from Earth. The meaning and purpose of marriage have been misunderstood, that is why many people violently die in it or get confused and frustrated along the way. God laments that His people perish for lack of knowledge. When couples don't understand the purpose of marriage, they fight over everything until they wound each other, but with knowledge and vision, they will build strong, successful home and raise godly offspring that will fulfill their divine purpose on Earth. This book will look into the foundation -the original purpose of marriage and how it is part of divine purpose on Earth. The understanding of this will help couples have a vision and walk according to their vision in marriage because, without vision people perish (Proverbs 29:18), but with vision, they will succeed and fulfill their divine destiny on Earth
