The key item is the crochet hook, and there are plenty of different sizes and types. When you're choosing a beginner crochet hook, opt for one made out of aluminum because the yarn will make the yarn easily glide. The three basic crochet supplies you'll need include: An aluminum crochet hook size I-9 or H-8, whichever feels best in your hand

There's nothing wrong with this method, but for crochet for beginners we'd generally advise to try and stick to the two main methods. Most importantly, you want to be holding your hook roughly 3-5cm down from the tip of your hook, as this will give you the best level of control and room to put your stitches onto the hook.

Boot cuffs are trendy, but it's also a perfect beginner crochet project. They're made with a simple single crochet stitch, but they have a ribbed look because they're worked in the back loop only, a technique you'll learn with this pattern. Boot cuffs make welcome holiday stocking stuffers, especially with a matching scarf.
