Gourmet Farmer Matthew Evans and producers Nick Haddow and Ross O'Meara share their favourite deli recipes. Enjoy food as it used to taste. Why would you make your tomato sauce or preserve your own vegetables? It's quite simple, really - because it tastes better. This collection of recipes celebrates the artisan process in making items you'd typically find in your local deli, and provides simple, delicious recipes where those ingredients are the stars of simple, rustic, flavoursome dishes. From dill pickles to preserved artichokes, the definitive ploughman's and beef tartare, The Gourmet Farmer Deli Book: Vegetables and Condiments celebrates the way we used to cook and the way food used to taste. Recipes include: Pickled olives, preserved roast tomatoes, braised lamb necks with olives and rosemary, pickled pub eggs, Grandpa Steve's tomato sauce and many more. Why do all giraffes look the same - or do they? It's almost as though Grandad was there with the monkeys and the giraffes. 'In the time of the giraffe, giraffes were wondrous creatures.' 'How, Grandad? How, different?' So Grandad tells the story of what happened to the incredibly coloured giraffe clans.

Jan Dostal lays out four steps for the development of spiritual thinking, beginning with the expansion of Pure Thinking which can be released via Reverence, into Love, and finally Sacrifice. Anyone working towards a deeper understanding of human existence will invariably encounter many paradoxical and contradicting phenomena - in life just as in Anthroposophy and the work of Rudolf Steiner. Jan Dostal makes it clear that we have to view such paradoxes as the very foundations for a realistic way of knowing - the many layered and contradictory facets of life cannot simply be captured in schemes and theories. By applying our contempaltive capacities as well as developing higher

A Paris Review Staff Pick An Esquire Best Book of 2017 A sweeping, Dickensian story of a young girl on a life-changing journey across nineteenth-century Ireland on the eve of the Great Famine Early one October morning, Grace's mother snatches her from sleep and brutally cuts off her hair, declaring, "You are the strong one now." With winter close at hand and Ireland already suffering, Grace is no longer safe at home. And so her mother outfits her in men's clothing and casts her out. When her younger brother Colly follows after her, the two set off on a remarkable odyssey in the looming shadow of their country's darkest hour. The broken land they pass through reveals untold suffering as well as unexpected beauty. To survive, Grace must become a boy, a bandit, a penitent and, finally, a woman—all the while afflicted by inner voices that arise out of what she has seen and what she has lost. Told in bold and lyrical language by an author who has already been called "one of his generation's very finest novelists" (Ron Rash, author of The Risen), Grace is an epic coming-of-age novel and a poetic evocation of the Irish famine as it has never been written.
