African unity and independence who claimed to be a descendant of King Solomon, he fought with the Allies against the Axis powers during World War II and was a messianic figure for the Jamaican Rastafarians. But the final years of his empire saw turmoil and revolution, and he was ultimately overthrown and assassinated in a communist coup. Written by Asfa-Wossen Asserate, Haile Selassie ' s grandnephew, this is the first major biography of this final " king of kings. " Asserate, who spent his childhood and adolescence in Ethiopia before fleeing the revolution of 1974, knew Selassie personally and gained intimate insights into life at the imperial court. Introducing him as a reformer and an autocrat whose personal history—with all of its upheavals, promises, and horrors—reflects in many ways the history of the twentieth century itself, Asserate uses his own experiences and painstaking research in family and public archives to achieve a colorful and even-handed portrait of the emperor.

Riding motorcycles is fun, but author Ken Condon maintains that there is a state of consciousness to be achieved beyond the simple pleasure of riding down the road. Riding in the Zone helps riders find that state of being. It's the experience of being physically and mentally present in the moment, where every sense is sharply attuned to the ride. Your mind becomes silent to the chatter of daily life, and everyday problems seem to dissolve. You feel a deeper appreciation for life. Your body responds to this state of being with precise, fluid movements, you feel in balance, your muscles are relaxed, and it seems as though every input you make is an expression of mastery. This is "the Zone." Condon identifies all of the factors that affect entering the Zone and addresses each one individually, from the development of awareness and mental skills to mastering physical control of the motorcycle. At the end of each chapter are drills designed to transform the book's ideas into solid, practical riding skills. Riding in the Zone takes riders to the next level in their skill set.

Since they were both holding shovels, the first thing she said in a rhetorical tone was “ Did you guys do that? Thank you! ” Before they could get a word out, she continued with “ I guess you are here to shovel my drive! Or did you do that too and now you want your money? ” Without missing a beat, Mel replied, “ Yup! Twenty bucks! ” In a scolding almost frantic tone she replied with, “ Well I ’ m not paying. I have the lawn service under contract. Not very smart business boys. You can ’ t just ask people to pay for a service they didn ’ t request! ” Pete just stood there in shock when Mel said, “ OK, we ’ ll put it back. ” She paused for a moment with a look of horror on her face until she realized Mel was joking and started laughing. She said “ I ’ m sorry boys, but I ’ m already committed. ” Mel replied, “ That ’ s OK, we understand. ” As they were walking toward the next house, they heard Ms. Strickland ’ s door open and she started yelling, “ Boys!? Boys!? Wait! ” Mel and Pete exchanged glances wondering what now? “ Come back! I changed my mind! You can shovel my drive! ” Pete jokingly said to Mel, “ It looks like we ’ re both gonna make $20 on this drive since our price just doubled! ”
