Fedan has managed to write a novel that is mesmerizing; part love story, part historical novel, part spiritual text, "Dream Maker" is one hell of a read. It is historically accurate, without the feel of an historical novel. Instead, it reads like an adult fairy tale of sorts that never fails to charm and entrance.

The Dream Maker as designed in Season Two. The Dream Maker is an elderly, Merlin-esque wizard. He has a long puffy white beard, with streaks of balding hair coming out of from beneath his hat. He wears a long blue robe with a small purse attached to his waist. In the second season, the Dream Maker's attire was altered slightly, looking less decrepit and scruffy and more dignified and majestic.
