Arguably the only surprising thing about the original MV F4 of 1998 was that it was launched as a 750 at a time when the class was fast becoming moribund. The Japanese factories' main focus of attention had already switched to 1,000cc sports bikes but it took all of six years for MV to follow suit. The limited edition Serie Oro models were built to mark the 1991 re-launch of the MV Agusta brand by the Castiglioni brothers of Cagiva fame - the F4 was created by Massimo Tamburini, designer of ...
