Causation of an event alone is insufficient to create legal liability. Sometimes causation is one part of a multi-stage test for legal Causation has two prongs.

First, a tort must be the cause in fact of a particular injury, which

File Type PDF Proof Of Causation In Tort Law means that a specific act must actually have resulted in injury to another. In its simplest form, cause in fact is established by evidence that shows that a tortfeasor's act or omission was a necessary antecedent
