The two most poignant sections of The Automatic Millionaire are, to me, when Bach describes the monetary benefits of a) foregoing a $5 cup of coffee a day and instead investing that $5 (or, more easily, investing $150 a month) and b) how making half a monthly mortgage payment every two weeks rather than waiting a full month between payments can help you save tens of thousands, if not hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Internationally bestselling financial advisor David Bach's Automatic Millionaire promotes a revolutionary system for making even the most undisciplined money managers rich. The Automatic Millionaire shows readers how to change their financial practices and even their lives, the simple and automatic way. The book begins with a powerful story about an average Canadian couple — he's a low-level manager, she's a beautician — whose joint income never exceeds $55,000 a year, yet who somehow manage to own two homes debt-free, put two kids through college, and retire at fifty-five with more than $1 million in savings. The incredible message Bach delivers is that the key to getting rich is "automating" the way to wealth by "paying yourself first," using automatic funded retirement accounts and money market accounts to secure the future and pay for the present. A concise guide that's a fixture on bestseller lists, The Automatic Millionaire introduces readers to a system that is powerful and simple — an automatically effective, life-changing system that delivers. Do it once, the rest is automatic.

How does an ordinary person with an ordinary income reach their seven-figure dreams? First they must own their own home – and do it David Bach's way. The financial coach who has helped millions to finish rich is back with a simple, powerful solution to get rich in real estate. As David says, "Renters stay poor, homeowners get rich, and smart landlords laugh all the way to the bank!" In his breakout 2004 bestseller, The Automatic Millionaire, David Bach showed why owning your own home is not only smart, it's the core secret to becoming a millionaire. In his new book, tailored for a Canadian readership, he shows exactly how to make that happen with a simple, automatic plan you can read in an hour and put into place today. Renters will learn how to buy a first home, even with lousy credit and tiny savings. And existing homeowners will find out how to turn the roof over their heads into a powerful investment that doubles, triples, and quadruples in price while you simply enjoy living in it. And while you don't have to be a landlord to finish rich, if you're willing to be, David teaches you how simple it really is to buy a rental property even while you're paying the mortgage on your home. The Automatic Millionaire Homeowner is brilliantly simple, easy to read, highly motivational with a realistic, take-action method for achieving financial prosperity in real estate, starting now. Bach offers time-tested tactics on all the essentials, including: • Why you shouldn't wait: busting the myths of renting • Finding a down payment right now using the Automatic Down Payment Solution™ • Choosing the mortgage that is right for you – even with debt, even with imperfect credit • The secret system for debt-free homeownership: why you must Make It Automatic! • The Automatic Millionaire Right Place, Right Time, Right Price, Right Program™ for buying and selling • Learn the Automatic Millionaire Mindset™ and collect "automatic cheques" while you sleep
