The Marshall Albums: Photography and Archaeology. Sir John Marshall enjoyed a long tenure at the Archaeological Survey of India, first as its Director-General and then as Officer on Special Duty. One of the most important collections of the ACP, the Albums display images taken by Marshall during his term as Director-General between 1902 and 1928. The images reflect his keen interest in photography as a tool for successful conservation campaigns and highlight a unique process, which helped ...
