Roy and Silo are two male chinstrap penguins in New York City's Central Park Zoo. They were noted by staff at the zoo in 1998 to be performing mating rituals, but no sexual acts, and one of them in 1999 attempted to hatch a rock as if it were an egg. This inspired zoo keepers to give them an egg from a pair of penguins which could not hatch it, resulting in both of them raising a chick that was named Tango. Tango herself was viewed in a similar situation with another female penguin. Roy and Silo
